Nol Declares Martial Law in Cambodia

By JOHN T. WHELEHAN
Associated Press Writer
PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Plagued by public resentment and a torrent of rumors, Gen. Lon Nol's Cambodian government warned its critics today with a proclamation of martial law.

Martial law went into effect without a full explanation of what it meant, but diplomatic sources said the purpose was to formalize what is already going on and to warn critics of the government to keep quiet.

Homes are already being searched without warning or warrant. Military patrols already enforce a nightly curfew in Phnom Penh and in the countryside.

There were suggestions that the military would intervene to speed up trials of those accused of any crimes connected with the war effort.

The government has been particularly concerned about the torrent of rumors flooding Phnom Penh, and "rumor mongers" were thought to be one target.

Rumors flourish in part because heavy press censorship permits only glowing accounts of the Cambodian army to appear in print. The Cambodians, like foreign observers, are skeptical of this because of the large number of key provincial capitals lost to the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong, and because the government considered the situation dangerous enough to accept help from South Vietnam, a traditional enemy for centuries.

When he deposed Prince Norodon Sihanouk as Chief of State on March 18, the general wooed public favor by citing Sihanouk's tacit permission to let North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops operate freely in eastern provinces. To the Cambodians, this was equivalent to an Arab country permitting Israeli troops to operate inside its frontiers.

The Cambodians, with tacit government approval went on an anti-Vietnamese rampage of any crime with the use of a dangerous weapon. This can be done without penalizing the law abiding citizen, the hunter, the hobbyist, and a host of others. This, we hope, was one of the lessons learned from the labeling fiasco.—Crossett Observer

It makes much more sense to go after the crooks and criminally minded, by increasing the penalties for the commission of any crime with the use of a dangerous weapon. This can be done without penalizing the law abiding citizen, the hunter, the hobbyist, and a host of others. This, we hope, was one of the lessons learned from the labeling fiasco.—Crossett Observer

Memorial Day Traffic Toll Reaches 374
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The known traffic death toll over the Memorial Day weekend was 374—in the lower range of the National Safety Council's estimate of 350 to 450—but could go higher as late reports come in.

The toll far surpassed the previous two-day Memorial Day weekend record of 310, set in 1959.

Nevertheless, the president of the National Safety Council, Howard Pyle, said:

"We are encouraged by the fact that, in spite of the heavy traffic over the weekend, so many Americans acted responsibly and drove defensively."

Outside Atlanta a freak car-plane crash killed six persons, five of them in the automobile. The airplane struck the car while attempting an emergency landing on a busy highway in foggy, rainy weather Saturday.

A man, his wife and their two sons, and a boy who was a neighbor of the family, died in the car.

The sixth victim was a passenger on the plane, which was on a chartered flight taking prospective real estate buyers to Florida.

Near Richmond Hill, Ga., three young men were killed Sunday in an accident that involved two autos and a Greyhound bus with 18 passengers. None of the bus passengers was injured.

Escapee Is Picked Up Here

An auto accident involving cars driven by Lynda S. Turner and Mary L. Muldrew at 5:50 p.m. Saturday resulted in a charge against Mary L. Muldrew for following too close. Officer Haltom investigated. Mr. Haltom also picked up an escaped convict listed as William L. Clark of Houston. He was turned over to the FBI.

Gun Barrage Aimed at Enemy Area

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — American artillerymen lined up 20 big howitzers and fired more than 2,000 shells into a suspected North Vietnamese staging area across the Cambodian border Sunday in one of the biggest artillery attacks of the Vietnam war.

"It must have looked like the Russian front in World War II," one U.S. officer said of the five-hour attack, made from a repositioned firebase in War Zone C, about 70 miles northwest of Saigon.

Initial reports indicated some bunkers were blown open and a few secondary explosions occurred, indicating that munitions had been stored in the area. But U.S. officers said bad weather prevented a thorough aerial assessment.

The twelve 155mm and eight 8-inch howitzers blazed away at the rate of seven rounds a minute. The target was a crescent-shaped jungle area about five miles west of the border and one to two miles southeast of the Cambodian town of Krasang.

Allied troops recently swept through the area, but officers of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division said intelligence reports indicated that the area was being used as a "marshalling area" by North Vietnamese troops.

Such artillery attacks are rare in the Vietnam war. Saturation bombardment usually is left to B52 bombers and tactical aircraft. One senior officer said the proximity of Krasang to the target area may have led to the decision to use artillery instead of less accurate air strikes.

The artillery attack coincided with a new operation launched inside Cambodia by South Vietnamese forces near the provincial capital of Prey Veng, 35 miles west of Krasang.

A South Vietnamese spokesman said the troops clashed sporadically with enemy forces over a 12-mile area around Prey Veng Sunday. He reported 34 enemy killed, 13 prisoners taken, and only one South Vietnamese wounded.

Unemployment Is No Problem to Dentists Anywhere in America

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AL) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

There is no unemployment problem among U.S. dentists. They have an estimated backlog of half a billion unfilled cavities — 285 million in children's teeth, 235 million in adults. The grinding task they face: fewer than two out of a hundred people go through life without needing a tooth filled.

Perhaps we ought to find a way to make cars operate on honey instead of gasoline. A gallon of nectar, says the National Geographic Society, can fuel a bee four million miles at a speed of seven miles an hour. And it doesn't pollute the air.

Why do women wind up in jail? A study in Milwaukee found the three most common reasons for their arrest were drunk and disorderly conduct, traffic violations and prostitution. Like men, women offenders tend to be repeaters. Sixty per cent had previous arrest records.

Quotable notables: "No one of us can help the things life has done to us. They're done before you realize it, and once they're done, they make you do other things until at last everything comes between you and what you'd like to be, and you've lost your true self forever."—Eugene O'Neill.

Fulbright Expected to Kill Dole Amendment in Cambodia Debate

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's great debate on U.S. involvement in Cambodia so far has been neither great nor much of a debate. But it has been extended the polite term for a filibuster designed to keep the Senate from a vote.

In the nearly three weeks of debate only three votes—all relatively insignificant—have taken place.

Another two days of talk are in prospect before Wednesday's scheduled vote on the first real test of strength—an amendment by Sen. Robert J. Dole, R-Kan.

The Dole rider would delay enforcement of the pending Cooper-Church amendment, aimed at cutting off funds for U.S. operations in Cambodia after July 1. Dole's language would move that date back to such time as Communists release all American prisoners in Cambodia.

The initial vote, however, will probably come on an expected move by Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to table—and thus kill—the Dole amendment.

Still far off is a vote on the Cooper-Church amendment itself. Its backers claim a Senate majority, but administration forces fighting the proposal say they are gaining strength.

Before the Senate quit last Thursday for the Memorial Day holiday, it had spent 12 days on the Cambodia issue, consuming 48 hours and 56 minutes with at least 67 speeches plus assorted other comments, interjections and rejoinders.

But very little of the time was spent in actual debate. Most has been taken up by lengthy speeches to a virtually deserted chamber.

Although Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has called early 10 a.m. Senate meetings some days, at least two of these promptly recessed—for 87 and

Mortgage Subsidies Beginning to Worry Government Officials

By G. C. THIMLEN Jr.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government officials are worried the flourishing home-mortgage subsidy program, in addition to aiding low-income families, may be abetting slum speculation and racial discrimination.

Preliminary reports indicate most Negro families using the subsidies are buying older homes in inner city areas, says Charles B. Davis, the program's director. Whites, on the other hand, appear to be using subsidies to buy new homes in suburbs, he said.

"There are indications, especially in Washington, D.C., that slum speculators are using the program to unload old homes they couldn't otherwise sell," Davis said. "And some of these houses are in obvious violation of codes—local enforcement we have no control over."

Government statistics for the third quarter of 1969 show that the average age of existing homes purchased with mortgage subsidies was 27 years;

Showers Are Expected to Diminish

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Showers and thundershowers that covered the state today were expected to diminish tonight and Tuesday.

The Weather Bureau said a cold front would move through the state tonight and Tuesday and the state would come under the influence of high pressure.

The bureau said there was a possibility of some heavy thunderstorm activity in the state late this afternoon and tonight. Overnight lows ranged from 62 at Fayetteville to 71 at Memphis.

Precipitation for the 24-hour period which ended at 7 a.m. today included 1.90 inches at Fayetteville, .53 at Harrison, .03 at Jonesboro, .75 at Pine Bluff, 2.47 at Texarkana, .76 at El Dorado, .14 at Memphis, .96 at Little Rock and .23 at Fort Smith.

44 minutes respectively—because no senator wanted to speak.

Lending credence to the charge by some Cooper-Church supporters that administration forces intend to keep the measure from a vote for many weeks is the fact that of 13 speeches longer than an hour, 11 have been delivered by opponents.

Sentence of Death Reversed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court today reversed the murder conviction and death sentence given Franklin Bosnick Sr., in the Dec. 31, 1968 shooting of a Hughes policeman.

The court, in a 5-2 decision, ordered a new trial for Bosnick on grounds that Circuit Judge Elmo Taylor of Searcy erred in refusing to instruct the jury on lesser degrees of homicide.

Bosnick was convicted of first-degree murder in the death of Jessie J. Morgan, who was shot as he tried to prevent a robbery at a service station-grocery store near Hughes.

Three other persons, including Bosnick's son also were charged with first-degree murder in Morgan's death. They were Franklin Bosnick Jr., 17, Danny Wayne McKay, 18, and Dewey Ray Murray, 24.

The younger Bosnick and Murray, tried separately from the elder Bosnick, also have been convicted and sentenced to death. McKay's case is still pending.

Chief Justice Carleton Harris and J. Fred Jones dissented.

Nixon Plans Nationwide TV Talk

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon returns to Washington today with what he calls encouraging military reports on Cambodia and Vietnam to relay to the nation in a televised address Wednesday night.

He got the word in a 2½-hour briefing Sunday at the Western White House from his two top Asian commanders—Gen. Creighton Abrams, supreme U.S. commander in Vietnam, and Adm. John S. McCain Jr., commander-in-chief, Pacific.

They flew here to give the President and top Washington military leaders an up-to-date progress report on the month-old Cambodia operation and how it will affect plans for withdrawing more U.S. troops from Vietnam.

"The President was encouraged by this briefing," deputy press secretary Gerald Warren announced afterwards.

He turned aside questions on specific details, explaining that the President wants "to make his own report" in a 15-minute

Power Given to Break Strikes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today gave federal judges the power to break strikes that are called in the face of "no-strike" contracts.

The 5-2 decision in favor of a California supermarket chain reverses an earlier stand by the high court. The stated purpose is to encourage arbitration of labor disputes.

The ruling may be a bitter pill for unions. It means employers who are struck despite no-strike bargaining agreements will be able to seek injunctions from federal judges to force the workers back to their jobs.

In 1962 the Supreme Court, on a 5-3 vote, held the Norris-LaGuardia Act bars federal courts from issuing such injunctions.

Today's ruling is a reversal caused by the change in court personnel since 1962 and a switch in positions by Justice Potter Stewart, who quoted an aphorism of the late Justice Felix Frankfurter that "wisdom too often never comes, and so one ought not to reject it merely because it comes late."

Justice Hugo L. Black complained in dissent that since federal law has not changed the court should have left the 1962 ruling in effect. "It is Congress, not this court, that is elected by the people," Black said. "This court should, therefore, interject itself as little as possible into the law-making and law-changing process."

Hundreds Are Feared Dead in Peru Quake

By JOE MCGOWAN JR.
Associated Press Writer
LIMA, Peru (AP)— Hundreds were feared dead in Peru today following a massive earthquake that devastated communities along a 600-mile stretch of the coast.

Radio Panamericana reported 140 dead in Huaraz, a city of 22,000 in the snow-capped Andes 175 miles north of Lima. The Peruvian Red Cross said 90 per cent of the homes and commercial buildings were destroyed Sunday in the quake and at least five after shocks.

Some 35 miles to the northwest, the slum-ridden coastal city of Chimbote had at least 15 killed and terrible destruction, officials reported. Chimbote was a sleepy fishing village until a few years ago, but the new fishmeal industry has attracted thousands of Indians to work in the factories.

The Peruvian Geophysical Institute said the quake struck at 3:23 p.m. EST, with its epicenter 211 miles northwest of Lima and 12 miles offshore from Chimbote. The institute said the tremor was 7.75 on the Richter scale and 8 on the Mercalli scale, intense enough to cause "grave damage."

Peru's last disastrous quake, on Oct. 17, 1960, killed 175 persons and left more than 3,000 homeless. It registered 7.5 on the Richter scale.

Officials said it might be days before an accurate assessment of deaths and property damage could be made.

In Lima damage was slight and injuries few. One person died of a heart attack attributed to the earthquake. Limas are always aware of the possibility of a quake and generally react well by seeking open areas or standing beneath reinforced doorways. "Bells" hundreds ran into the streets screaming as buildings began to rock.

Several dead were reported in Trujillo, the heart of the sugar plantation country ad the site of a W. R. Grace chemical complex, 300 miles northwest of Lima.

Considerable damage was reported in Paramonga, the site of sugar refineries and plantations about 90 miles northwest of the capital. People fled in panic.

In Chiclayo, 400 miles up the coast from Lima, one person was reported dead of a heart attack and at least 40 injured. Building cornices, walls and a number of church towers collapsed.

One person was reported killed and 18 injured in Huacho, 75 miles northwest of Lima.

7 Memorial Day Fatalities in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas recorded seven traffic fatalities for the Memorial Day weekend, with rain-slick highways reported in many areas of the state.

A triple fatality took the lives of three young persons on U.S. 70 near Carlisle Sunday afternoon as their car slid on wet pavement into the path of an oncoming pickup truck.

Police identified the victims as Robert Baily, 17, of Little Rock, the driver of the car; Sylvia Elmore, 17, of near Carlisle and Dorothy Jean Elmore, 11, of near Carlisle.

Saturday night, Kristopher K. Speck, 11-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Speck of North Little Rock, was killed in a two-car collision in Little Rock. He was a passenger in a car driven by his father.

Ola Henderson, 22, of Texarkana, Tex., was killed Saturday in a one-car accident on U.S. 67 near Texarkana on the Arkansas side.

Early Saturday two men were killed in separate one-car accidents.

Police identified the victims as Douglas Ray Bonds, 19, of Trumann, who was killed on Arkansas 75 near Parkin and Robert Thomas, 62, of San Antonio, Tex., who was killed when a tire blew out on his tractor trailer truck on I-30 near Malvern.

Canadian Dollar to Take Jump

OTTAWA (AP) — The value of the Canadian dollar was expected to rise today in the wake of government action Sunday upping it from an eight-year-old official worth of 92.5 U.S. cents.

The government announced that it would allow the dollar to "float freely" in the world market, as the West German government did with the mark for a month last fall.

Finance Minister Edgar J. Benson said Canada would resume its obligation to the International Monetary Fund to hold its dollar within narrow limits "as soon as circumstances permit." Benson gave no indication when that might be expected.

In Washington, the monetary fund issued a statement welcoming "the intention of the Canadian authorities to remain in close consultation with the fund with a view to the resumption of an effective par value at the earliest possible date."

The U.S. Treasury Department said it recognized "the circumstances that motivated this action" and commented: "The U.S. dollar is not affected."

Benson said he did not expect a very large change in the exchange rate. He said Canada would use its foreign exchange reserves to moderate any violent swings.

The action means that Canadian exports will tend to be more expensive, and foreigners traveling in Canada will be spending more of their money. Imports into Canada and travel by Canadians abroad will be less expensive.

The Canadian dollar has been pegged at 92.5 U.S. cents since 1962, when the government was forced to abandon the floating exchange rate because of downward pressure on the currency.

Under an agreement with the IMF, Canada has kept the value of its dollar within one per cent of either side of the pegged value. But in the past several months, there has been a big influx of foreign funds to buy Canadian products and invest in Canadian enterprises. In order for this money to come into Canada, foreigners have had to buy Canadian dollars with U.S. dollars or other currencies, creating a large demand which has caused the Canadian money to strain its upper limit.

In order to keep the Canadian dollar below its agreed-upon maximum value, the Bank of Canada has had to borrow money from Canadians to sell dollars. In a seven-week period extending to early May, the federal banks' balance fell from more than $1 billion to just over $400 million.

Warren emphasized that President Nixon had no new or dramatic decisions or announcements to make regarding the Vietnam war.

The June 30 deadline still stands for withdrawal of all U.S. troops from Cambodia, Warren said. He added that the President did not plan to say anything about the timetable for withdrawal of the 150,000 troops he announced would come out of Vietnam by next spring.

The TV address, at a time to be announced later, will relate to the progress of the operation against the enemy's Cambodian border sanctuaries launched April 30 and the Vietnamization program under which the United States hopes to turn over more battle responsibilities to the South Vietnamese.

The Columbia Broadcasting System, the American Broadcasting Co. and the Mutual Broadcasting System said they would broadcast the presidential address. The National Broadcasting Co. had no immediate comment.

Nixon was ending a four-day Memorial Day weekend stay at his Spanish-style vacation villa overlooking the Pacific. He planned to fly back to Washington from nearby El Toro Marine Corps Air Station about 3:20 p.m. (PDT).

The military briefing was the highlight of an otherwise quiet holiday weekend.

The resignation of Clark R. Mollenhoff as a Nixon special counsel was announced Saturday. Mollenhoff said he would leave his post in mid-July to become Washington bureau chief for the Des Moines Register and Tribune, for which he had worked 28 years before his White House appointment.

Students Win Case to Wear Long Hair

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court sustained today the right of two Wisconsin schoolboys to wear their hair long.

Robert W. Warren, the state's attorney general, had contended public school students do not have a personal, fundamental right of free choice of grooming and dress.

But the appeal was turned down unanimously. This leaves in effect decisions by federal district and appeals courts that officials in Williams Bay could not expel Thomas Breen and James Anton for wearing their hair long.

Breen and Anton were students at Williams Bay high school in the fall of 1968 when they violated a school dress code, adopted by Williams Bay students a year earlier, and were expelled. Anton returned to school by agreeing to a haircut but continued the legal fight along with Breen.

The rule the teen-agers challenged read: Hair should be washed, combed and worn so it does not hang below the collar line in the back, over the ears on the side and must be above the eyebrows. Boys should be clean shaven; long sideburns are out.

Atty. Gen. Warren, in petitioning the Supreme Court for a hearing, argued that the rule was not promulgated out of dislike and was not arbitrary or unreasonable. Rather, he said, in the judgment of the school board it was reasonably calculated to provide "a proper educational environment."

Senators Want to Sell Planes to Israel

WASHINGTON (AP) — A letter urging the administration to sell 125 more warplanes to Israel has been signed by 58 senators.

The total may reach 60 or 70 by the time it is delivered to Secretary of State William P. Rogers, probably late today, according to an informed senate aide.

The bipartisan appeal has been circulating quietly for several weeks, and its sponsors feel the White House will lend a receptive ear.

In another, unrelated development Rogers said he may soon take part personally in renewed talks with the Soviet Union on the Middle East.

Recent meetings with the Soviets, which have produced little, have involved the U.S. ambassador in Moscow, Jacob Beam, and U.S. Asst. Secretary Joseph Sisco, who handles Middle East affairs.

Rogers said on his return from Europe Sunday night that he, Sisco, or the two of them together planned soon to set up a meeting with Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin, who returned from Moscow consultations recently.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today spared William L. Maxwell from execution but did not decide the challenges to capital punishment his appeal presented.

The 6-1 decision gives Maxwell, an Arkansas Negro, a chance to argue in lower court the sentence cannot be carried out because opponents of capital punishment were kept out of the jury box.

The Maxwell case reached national prominence because it became a pivotal test of the way the death penalty is administered in this country.

The court did not rule on the issues presented, but granted review to death cases from California and Ohio which also present strong challenges to use of the death penalty.

The action means the issues will not be decided until next term when the court will be at full strength. Judge Harry A. Blackmun, who takes his seat next week, thus will help the court decide issues that have remained unresolved over the past two terms.

Justice Hugo L. Black dissented as he did in June, 1963, when the court ruled persons expressing general conscientious scruples against the death penalty could not automatically be kept off juries in capital cases.

Today's decision said Maxwell's death sentence could not stand if opponents of capital punishment were arbitrarily barred as jurors. But the court did not reach a decision on this since Maxwell did not raise the jury issue in the three federal courts that have considered his appeal.

age home age during the same period was 13 years.

Low-income families are receiving a median government subsidy of $55 a month toward their mortgage payments. They are required to pay 20 per cent of their adjusted income for home costs.

Davis said some builders promote homes designed for the subsidy program in such a way as to attract only whites to suburban areas.

The government will soon begin investigation of both slum speculation and racial discrimination in the subsidy program, Davis said. He said evaluation is difficult because the government has just begun to collect housing data by race.

The median gross income of families receiving the home subsidies is $5,685 a year compared to $11,174 in conventional programs.

They buy homes costing about $15,000. Of these, 56 per cent are new and 44 per cent are existing homes. Some 28 per cent of the subsidy families are headed by women.

The program aided 100 families to purchase homes in 1968, 8,700 in 1969 and an estimated 119,000 will be helped this year.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

FORMS

Dear Helen: Why do people who have titles in front of their names, or college degrees after them become arrogant and "superior?"

We are in a neighborhood where many professional persons live. I hear such remarks as, "The block is going downhill—a laborer just moved in." It doesn't matter that the "working man" earns more than the professor, only that he has dirt under his fingernails.

What troubles me is that our children are made to feel this class discrimination. Even some of our co-workers bow down to titles and degrees. — LOWLY

Dear Lowly: Is there a spot to reverse snobishness here? Perhaps that chip on your shoulder makes you over-sensitive. Granted a few "high and mighty" pollute every neighborhood but the majority accepts you for the kind of person you are, not by the calluses, or lack of them, on your husband's hands. Seek out the truly superior people and ignore the "classists." — H.

Dear Helen Bottel: I must protest the letter written by Mr. E.P. concerning how to keep rabbits out of gardens. His anecdote recalled Uncle Remus and the "tar babies" and suggested lining the garden with black bottles, a remedy offered to his father by an elderly Negro many years ago.

The total reflection was the Black children (i.e. tar babies) frighten even dumbbunnies. This is in poor taste to all of us of the Black community. I'm surprised that you would print—and applaud—it, Mrs. Bottel.

There have been far too many jokes and fun-stories made at our expense and these help perpetuate the fabric of racism and inequality still prevalent in America—MRS. G.M.

Dear M: I'm so very sorry that you saw in Mr. E.P.'s letter—and my praise of it—something he or I never once meant to imply. My apologies from both of us.

Until today I'd considered the Uncle Remus stories classics of my childhood, concerning no particular race. Perhaps if I read them now, I'd be upset by the implications, just as I'm upset by the prejudice, discrimination, and often unaware racism I see all around me.—H. . . . And what better time to borrow an article from the Sacramento BEE. It is written by a black college student and was printed first in the California Aggie, student newspaper at the University of California at Davis.

WHAT IS RACISM? Racism is asking the black, well-dressed young man at an airport to get your bags. Racism is getting uptight when

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television plays favorites when it comes to holidays.

The net works love Christmas best of all but almost any late fall or winter holiday is an excuse for some special programming.

But Memorial Day and the Fourth of July are largely ignored. Mostly it is because few new entertainment specials are whipped up for summer audiences. And most shows are reruns.

It does seem almost paradoxical that the networks are so casual about losing their viewers in spring and summer. Next season will be even shorter than the past one, when some series started reruns in March. Few series will make more than 24 episodes next season. Thus a series, plus a couple of preemptions for special will occupy six months. Then will come another six months of reruns or budget-conscious replacement. Television is a business, however, and the business of reruns makes economic sense. Paul Klein, head of NBC's Department of Audience Research, believes that "people watch television and they don't watch programs."

"Once they have committed themselves to the medium, they look around for the content that is least objectionable," Klein recently told a conference on attitude research.

If his premise is correct, it would seem logical that the person who sat through an episode of "Bonanza" in October would turn to Glen Campbell when the show surfaced a second time or that the "Mission: Impossible" audience would move en masse to "The Bold Ones"—or vice versa—for the rerun season.

In this period of the TV doldrums, the "Ed Sullivan Show" becomes a bright spot in the Sunday schedule. The CBS veteran does mix a few reruns into his hot weather operation, but he is still presenting a new vaudeville hour each Sunday night.

This week his show was geared for the younger audience—an animal act, a unicycle and some puppets were important components.

But even Sullivan appears to be operating on a hot weather scale—no big-name stars and less elaborate production values.

One performer, impressionist Rich Little, worked through an assortment of old-time movie stars—Clark Gable, Peter Lorre, Boris Karloff and Humphrey Bogart—and the big response of the studio audience, which had a lot of young people in it, suggested how many vintage movies they have savored on TV screens.

It seems that every kid today has seen and been amused by the 1933 classic "King Kong" which in the past few years must have reached more people via television than it did when first released.

Army to Send Crippled GI to Vietnam

FT. LEWIS, Wash. (AP) —

Sparks, who is on orders to fly to the war area Tuesday, said in an interview Sunday he is not complaining—"I'm glad to do it."

Sparks, a 22-year-old microwave technician, said the rod was placed in his left thigh after

Army induction center doctors in Detroit told him when he was drafted in March 1969 the disability was "bad but not enough to keep me out," Sparks said.

During basic training, Sparks said, the Army exempted him from jumping, running, crawling or squatting. Later, he said, the Army cleared him for activity other than squatting exercises or deep knee bends.

Sparks said an officer once told him, "I don't know how in hell you got in the Army."

His mother wondered much the same thing, Sparks said.

Al Unser Winner of Indy 500

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Al Unser, auto racing's newest glamour boy, got out of his motel bed at 8 a.m. Sunday, ate breakfast with his wife, his mother and his two children — just like any other day in the year.

He showed up at noon at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, kicked his way through the debris left by 300,000 people, and visited with crewmen who had helped him win a dramatic wire-to-wire victory the day before in the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race.

A few hours later he stepped on stage of the Murat Shrine Temple and accepted the biggest single check ever paid to the winner of a motor-sports event — $271,697.72.

"This has to be the greatest single day in a race driver's life," the handsome, dark-haired member of a racing family from Albuquerque said modestly. "The guys back there in the garage made it possible."

He also had some sentimental words for Parnelli Jones, winner of the 1963 Memorial Day 500. Jones is co-owner of the P.J.-Colt turbocharged Ford that performed so flawlessly for Unser Saturday.

What Unser didn't say but what he admits privately is that a year of seasoning under Jones' wing has made him one of the world's best drivers, with untold wealth and glory ahead of him.

He hooked up with the brilliant Jones last year prior to the Memorial Day race, but missed the lineup when he broke his leg while frolicking with a motorcycle in the garage area.

After his leg mended, however, the 31-year-old drove Jones' car to six championship victories in 11 races, finished second three times, third once and fourth on another occasion.

He came into this year's 500 with the best current record of any driver, and he came to the speedway with the best car among the 80 or so entries.

During a month of preparation, Unser consistently turned the top practice laps and had the least problems with his machinery. From the first week of practice on he was virtually conceded the pole position.

He won that honor on the first day of qualifying at 170.221 m.p.h. and went into the race the odds-on favorite over such worthies as three-time winner A.J. Foyt, 1969 champion Mario Andretti, Unser's brother Bobby, Dan Gurney, Johnny Rutherford and three-time world driving champion Jack Brabham.

Rutherford, who started in the middle of the first row, got to the first turn ahead of the field but Al passed him on the back stretch — to set the pattern for the race. From that point on, it was Al Unser against the field.

Unser so dominated the race from the first lap that there were only three other leaders — Foyt, Mark Donohue and Lloyd Ruby — for a combined total of nine of the 200 laps.

The average race speed was 155.749 m.p.h., held down by 27 minutes under the caution flag. It was Tony Hulman's 25th anniversary as owner of the speedway and he responded by helping pay a purse of $1,000,000.22, history's biggest for any single sporting event.

Donohue collected $86,427.49 for a second place finish — he was almost two miles behind Unser — while Gurney received $58,977.49 for third. Gurney had finished second the two years previously.

Donnie Allison, a 30-year-old ex-farm boy from Hueytown, Ala., made his first race ever in open cockpit machinery a successful one by coming in fourth in one of Foyt's Royote-Fords. He was paid $35,002.49 but more importantly was voted rookie of the year honors.

It was the biggest five days in Allison's career. A big time stock car driver on the South's high speed ovals, he had won a 600-mile Sunday before and pocketed almost $40,000.

Hill Winner of Memphis Tournament

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — "I don't like to hear these guys moaning about playing bad," Dave Hill said.

"I know what playing bad is all about. Not for just a little time, either, like for eight or nine years. I was going out of my skull. Right up the wall."

"I couldn't sleep nights. I'd get up and try different grips on the club. I had to master this nial-round 68 for 267, 13 under-par on the 6,466-yard Colonial game or have it put me in the ground."

Hill, who said he still isn't playing the way he wants to, played just well enough to win the $150,000 Danny Thomas-Memphis Open Golf Tournament Sunday, carving out a fi-

Country Club course and the lowest 72-hole score of the year. "I'm hitting about 60 per cent of my shots the way I want to," the slim, 33-year-old said, his dark hair plastered to his forehead by the steady drizzle that marked the final round.

"Now I want to play. I'm not playing as good as I did at this stage last year — but it's close, darn close."

It was in the tournament last year-then played as the Memphis Open—that the 12-year tour veteran really broke into his own.

He won the event for the second time and was off and running his greatest year. He added the Philadelphia and Buick Open titles, finished second on the money-winning list with more than $150,000 and won the coveted Vardon Trophy for the lowest scoring average.

Hill's victory Sunday was worth $30,000 and pushed his season earnings to over $67,000.

He scored by a single stroke over Homero Blancas, Frank Beard and Bob Charles.

Charles, a New Zealand left-hander, had a remarkable 63, Beard fashioned a 67, and Blancas, Hill's playing partner all four days and the leader going into the final round, took a 70.

Billy Maxwell, Dan Sikes, George Archer, Joe Campbell and Steve Spray followed at 270. Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper and Gary Player did not compete.

Hill moved into a tie for first in the first hole, when Blancas bogeyed, and went in front with 18 and 12-foot birdie putts on the eighth and ninth, respectively.

He saved par with a 15-footer on the 12th and appeared to be ready to run away and hide when he canned a 15-foot birdie putt on the 13th.

But he bogeyed the 14th and 15th, missing the green each time and fell back to a tie with Beard and Charles, who had finished.

He went in front to stay on the next hole, a par-5. He was in a trap in two, blasted out to 30 inches and sank the putt for the bird that clinched his eighth tour triumph.

But it has been a long, rough road for the tough-minded guy who came out of the caddy ranks in Jackson, Mich., and did little more than make a bare living his first eight years on the tour.

Then, in 1968, he took an enforced vacation when his wife locked his clubs in the garage, wouldn't let him get at them, and for the first time in years, he went 10 days without playing.

"It made a lot of difference," Dave said. "I've been taking

Rico Carty on One-Game Hit Streak

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Rico Carty is on a one-game hitting streak . . . and that's nine innings too long for the Philadelphia Phillies.

Carty, who hit safely in 31 consecutive games earlier this year and had a nine-game streak snapped by Philadelphia Saturday night, got back in the swing Sunday with three homers and a single, good for six runs batted in, as the Atlanta Braves crushed the Phillies 9-1.

The slugging outfielder, who has failed to pick up at least one hit in only four of the Braves' 46 games, finished his perfect day with a .436 batting average . . . 42 points higher than anyone else in the majors.

While Carty's batting mark soared against the Phils, Juan Marichal's inflated earned run average continued to spiral as San Francisco took a 7-3 beating from Pittsburgh.

Marichal, pounded for five runs in 2-3 innings and beaten for the third time in five decisions, left the game with an era of 6.13.

Elsewhere in National League play, the New York Mets swept a double-header from Houston 14-4 and 4-3 in 14 innings; Cincinnati downed Montreal 6-4; Los Angeles trimmed St. Louis 8-6 in 11 innings and the Chicago Cubs topped San Diego 7-4.

In the American League, California whipped Baltimore 6-1; Minnesota edged the New York Yankees 7-6 in 10 innings; the Chicago White Sox clobbered Boston 22-13; Kansas City shaded Washington 6-5; Cleveland defeated Oakland 3-2 and Milwaukee upended Detroit 7-6.

Carty, who went into Sunday's game batting .422, crashed a two-run homer in the third inning, poked a run-scoring single in the fifth and poled his 13th and 14th homers, in the sixth with one on and the eighth with the bases empty.

His four-hit spree helped right-hander Jim Nash breeze to his sixth straight victory. Nash, 7-1, scattered five hits, struck out 11 and blanked the Phils until the eighth.

Gene Alley homered to trigger a five-run third inning burst that kayoed Marichal and carried the Pirates past the Giants.

A walk, Willie Stargell's single, Al Oliver's two-run double, an error by Tito Fuentes and singles by Manny Sanguillen and Dave Cash completed the uprising.

A 14th inning single by pinch hitter Duffy Dyer delivered an unearned run that completed the Mets' sweep over the Astros. Left-hander Denny Lemaster, who had taken the first-game loss as a starter, was the victim again in relief as second baseman Joe Morgan booted Ken Boswell's leadoff grounder to open the gates.

Ron Swoboda delivered five runs in the opener with two homers and a bases-loaded walk as the Mets rolled to victory behind unbeaten Ray Sadecki.

Jim Wynn homered in each game for Houston.

Tony Perez' 18th homer of the season, a two-run wallop in the seventh inning, carried the Reds past the Expos, who have dropped eight in a row. Lee May hit two homers and Hal McRae one for the Reds, helping southpaw Jim Merritt become the majors' first 10-game winner.

The Dodgers took their third straight from St. Louis on Billy Grabarkewitz' two-run homer in the 11th, trailing 6-1. Los Angeles exploded for five runs in the seventh to knot it.

Johnny Callison knocked in three runs with a homer and a single as the Cubs flattened San Diego behind Ferguson Jenkins, who survived homers by Nate Colbert, Bob Barton and Al Ferrara on the way to his fourth victory against seven setbacks.

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — More than 300 children received medals for participation in the Arkansas Special Olympics for retarded children here Saturday.

The event was held at Hendrix College as a regional portion of a nationwide program sponsored by the Joseph Kennedy Foundation.

Former Los Angeles Rams football player Eddie Meador, and Cincinnati Royals basketball player Jack King assisted in the program.

more time off the tour the last couple of weeks. It helps. If I'm not playing good, I can get more value from time on the practice tee than I can playing in a tournament."

White Sox Batter the Red Sox

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Kansas City Royals didn't much care for the prying eye of Washington's television camera Sunday, but the Chicago White Sox story seemed like one instant replay after another as they sent 25 base hits flying around Boston's Fenway Park.

"I'd like to see those films," said Kansas City manager Charlie Metro, who protested about a TV camera in the center field mezzanine as the Royals beat the Senators 6-5. "You can tell me that you can't see anything, but I've been around baseball too long. I can tell you about a lot of things that happen."

"I didn't feel safe until that final out was made at first base," sighed Chicago skipper Don Gutteridge after the White Sox battered the Red Sox 22-13, one run shy of the American League record for two teams. "In a wild game like this anything can happen. And it just about did out there."

Elsewhere in the AL, California defeated Baltimore 6-1, Minnesota edged the New York Yankees 7-6 in 10 innings, Cleveland shaded Oakland 3-2 and Milwaukee nipped Detroit 7-6.

In National League action, the Chicago Cubs whipped San Diego 7-4, the New York Mets took two from Houston 14-4 and 4-3 in 14 innings, Cincinnati downed Montreal 6-4, Atlanta trounced Philadelphia 9-1, Los Angeles outlasted St. Louis 8-6 in 11 innings and Pittsburgh beat San Francisco 7-3.

Metro said he would seek a ruling from AL President Joe Cronin about the camera, which the Senators use to tape their pitchers and hitters.

"We never use the tape for anything else but to get a better look at our players," explained Ted Williams, manager of the Senators. "But any club in the league can get that same shot by looking at national television."

The cameraman said it was impossible to pick up the catcher's signals "because of the shadows when he crouches down." But Metro wasn't satisfied.

Metro's official protest of the game was wiped out when the Royals rallied for two runs in the eighth inning on Joe Keough's single and run-scoring doubles by Luis Alcaraz and pinch hitter Hawk Taylor.

Frank Howard's 15th homer had given the Senators a 5-4 lead in the seventh. Ed Kirkpatrick homered for Kansas City and Alcaraz had another RBI double.

Luis Aparicio and Walt Williams paced Chicago's explosion with five hits apiece. Aparicio had a triple and four singles and drove in three runs and Williams had a double and four singles and two RBI while Bill Melton knocked in four runs with a homer, double and single.

The White Sox won for only the third time in 15 games as the two teams combined for 42 hits, including three homers, two triples and 11 doubles.

Carl Yastrzemski and Mike Andrews homered for the Red Sox, who used six pitchers. The only one to escape without a run was Ken Brett, who only worked two-thirds of an inning.

"I've been saying all along we'd be a good hitting club," Gutteridge said earlier in the season when the White Sox dropped among the top hitting teams in the majors. "This doesn't surprise me. We've just got a lot of good hitters on our club."

Even Gutteridge must have been surprised Sunday. Home runs by Ken McMullen and Jim Fregosi and the strong pitching of Clyde Wright and Ken Tatum paced the Angels to their second straight victory over the Orioles.

Tatum came on in the sixth and Clyde Wright complained of a sore arm after Boog Powell homered and Paul Blair singled. Blair was struck in the face by a pitch from Tatum in the eighth and suffered a broken nose.

McMullen hit a two-run homer off loser Dave McNally in the second and added a run-scoring single off Dave Leonhard in the fifth.

The Twins maintained their 2 1/2-game lead over California in the AL West when Harmon Killebrew socked his second home run of the game in the 10th inning to beat the Yankees. That broke up a relief duel between Minnesota's Stan Williams, 5-0, and New York's Lindy McDaniel, 4-1.

Roy White and Pete Ward homered for the Yanks.

A two-run ninth-inning double by Ted Savage lifted the Brewers past the Tigers, who continued to have bullpen problems. The Brewers scored three times in the eighth on hits by Tommy Harper, Russ Snyder, Steve Hovley and Danny Walton, but still trailed 6-5.

However, Mike Hegan, who hit a two-run homer in the second, opened with a double and was sacrificed to third. Hank Allen walked before Savage connected.

A single by Graig Nettles, a sacrifice and Ted Uhlaender's RBI single accounted for Cleveland's winning run against Oakland in the ninth inning. Reggie Jackson and Bert Campaneris homered for the A's, Ray Fosse for the Indians. Fosse also scored the tying run in the eighth when he doubled and raced home on Roy Foster's single.

B A T T I N G — Rico Carty, Braves, hammered three home runs and a single in four at-bats and drove in six runs, raising his batting average to a whopping .436, as Atlanta trounced Philadelphia 9-1.

Englehorn Is Winner of Sullivan Open

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP) — It took an extra hole, but Shirley Englehorn finally finished higher than second in the O'Sullivan Open golf tournament.

"I almost collapsed," she said after rolling in a 20-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a sudden death playoff Sunday with Australian Margee Masters. "It was the only long putt I knocked in all day."

What made it even more ironic for Miss Englehorn, who had been the runner-up in both previous O'Sullivan Opens, was admitted to Long Beach Memorial Hospital on Long Island at 10:45 p.m. April 29 after suffering abdominal injuries.

Police said Sawchuk was injured during "horseplay" with teammate Ron Stewart on the lawn of their rented house on Long Island. Both men were separated from their wives.

In two operation at the Long Beach hospital, Sawchuk's gall bladder was removed and then a bleeding liver condition was treated. He was moved to New York Hospital in Manhattan last Friday and "underwent" more surgery on his liver early Sunday.

Sawchuk's injury was not announced until three weeks after it occurred when he was in critical condition. No charges have been filed in the case and Long Beach police said Sunday the incident was "just an accident really."

Sawchuk was a veteran of 21 seasons in the National Hockey League and holder of the all-time NHL record of 103 regular season shutouts. Four times he won the Vezina trophy for posting the lowest goals-against average.

He was NHL Rookie of the Year in 1950-51 with the Detroit Red Wings, with whom he played 14 seasons, interrupted by two years with Boston.

Toronto drafted him in 1964 and he played three seasons with the Maple Leafs before going to Los Angeles in the 1967 expansion draft. He was traded back to Detroit after one season and then came to the Rangers in 1969.

Even Gutteridge must have been surprised Sunday. Home runs by Ken McMullen and Jim Fregosi and the strong pitching of Clyde Wright and Ken Tatum paced the Angels to their second straight victory over the Orioles.

Observations About the Big Race

By LLOYD RUBY
Written for
The Associated Press
INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Carroll Shelby, my old sports car buddy, came in the garage after I dropped out of the race Saturday and I told him it just wasn't meant to be. I don't know if I'll ever win the Indianapolis 500.

I felt like I had everything it would take this time. As it turned out, I had everything but the one thing you need the most, luck.

The rear end broke after 54 laps. My heart broke again, too. I can't tell you just how disappointed I was. But I've been that route before and all you can do is wait another year and try again.

Gene White, my car owner, told somebody in the garage after we fell out that he'd have a car for me to drive here as long as I wanted to. He said Ruby's gonna win this thing if I have to bring him up here in a wheelchair when he's 75 years old. And he's gonna win it in my car.

Knowing there's a 500-mile race in three months sure takes some of the sting out of losing here. I know I've got another chance at winning a big one soon, rather than having to wait a whole year to come back and try again.

I don't think I've ever had more fun in a race than I did Saturday. It just didn't last long enough. A lot of the other cars could out-run me down the straightaways but, boy, could I flat put it on them in the corners.

I could drive my car anywhere I wanted to in the turns. Course, I went some places I didn't particularly want to go, too. I got way out of the groove a couple of times and just let the car go where it wanted to. Remember, I told you that was the only thing you can do at this old track.

Gene told me I scared the fool out of him a couple of times in my drive to the front. I remember passing three cars on the outside in turn number one early in the race. Gene said he saw me go in the turn way out of the groove and turned his head. He told me he knew I had made it when the caution light didn't come on.

AAU Gymnasts Titles for Students

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Yoshi Takai, a graduate student at Georgia Southern, and Linda Methany, of McKinley Ill., captured the all-around titles in the 1970 National AAU gymnastics championships Sunday.

Takai scored 108.35 points to outpace Shigetō Hamada of Kent State, who had 104.05.

Miss Methany, only woman from the United States ever to place in the Olympic gymnastics finals, tallied 74.65 points while runner-up Cathy Rigby of SCATS team of Long Beach, Calif., scored 73.80.

Villanova Runners Take IC4A Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Villanova's runners took back the IC4A outdoor track and field title from Maryland's muscle men.

Coach Jumbo Elliott's Gillanovans outscored the Terrapins from the Atlantic Coast Conference 60-52 Friday and Saturday for their 10th IC4A outdoor title in the past 13 years. The Wildcats retired their second IC4A cup—five victories retire a cup.

Matson Tosses Second Best in History

By ERIC PREWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A recent stock market slump helped Randy Matson, while basketball practice hurt Bob Beamon going into the Kennedy Track and Field Games.

"Last year the stock market went up, and I didn't have as much time," Matson said Saturday after producing the second best shot put in history, 71 feet, 4 1/2 inches.

And if Matson, now a Texas stock broker, can keep his mind off the market another few weeks, his world record of 71-5 1/2 may fall.

But Beamon, whose 29-2 long jump effort in the 1968 Olympics is one of the track world's safest records, is back with the pack now. He finished fourth Saturday, with 24-8 1/2, and Mari-Anderson of San Jose State won in 25-0.

"I don't know what's wrong with my legs," the New Yorker said later. "Maybe they've turned into basketball legs. I've been playing basketball and have not worked on track very much."

Beamon plans to play basketball for Adelphi University in New York next winter and dreams of a pro cage career. As for track, "I'm not going to compete until I get into shape."

Follmer Moves Up Fast in Auto Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
From 31st to first place — that was George Follmer's weekend in auto racing.

Follmer, 36, of Arcadia, Calif., had started Mario Andretti's backup Hawk-Ford in 20th position in Saturday's $1 million 500-mile race at Indianapolis. The car broke at the 50-mile mark and he finished 31st for $14,002.48.

Sunday Follmer got into a Ford Mustang at Bryar Motorsports Park near Loudon, N.H., and out ran such luminaries as Peter Revson and Mark Donohue, who had done much better at Indy, and old pro Parnelli Jones.

Follmer's victory in the third Trans-American sedan race of the season maintained Ford's superiority in this series in which the Detroit manufacturers have the prime interest.

Jones, co-owner of Al Unser's winning car at Indianapolis, had won the first two for Mustang. Jones ran into trouble on the 62nd lap at Bryar when his hood flew off and he didn't finish.

Revson, who finished 22nd at Indy, and Donohue, who collected $86,427.49 for second place behind Unser, came in second and third respectively at Bryar. They drove Javelins.

In other racing activity, 32-year-old Bobby Isaac won the $50,000 Virginia 500 for NASCAR Grand National stockers at Martinsville, Va. The race was stopped after 377 laps of the .525-mile course because of rain.

It was Isaac's fourth victory in his last five starts and added $10,795 to his bankroll. He now is the top Dodge driver on the rich NASCAR circuit.

Bobby Allison of Hueytown, Ala., older brother of the fourth place finisher and rookie of the year, won the $114,600 Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park.

In clipping a fifth of a second off the mark set by Count Fleet in 1942 and equaled by Blessbush and Dark Mirage, Nodouble, under top weight of 126 pounds including Braillo Baeza, got up in the final stride for a head victory over Ogden Phipps' Reviewer. William Haggin Perry's Dewan was third.

Nodouble paid a winning mutual of $13.60 in earning $74,490 and boosting his career earnings to $846,749.

Personality set no record in winning the Jersey Derby, but he was just a fifth of a second off the mark of 1:48 for the 1 1/4-mile stakes and he was convincing.

Belmonte had Personality in third place when the colt began his move on the final turn. From then on it was apparent, the race belonged to Personality. He passed Sonny Werblin's Silent Screen, who finished third, just past the eighth pole and then went by Corn Off The Cob midway between the sixteenth pole and the wire.

It was his third win in the last four races. He won the Wood Memorial before finishing eighth in the Kentucky Derby in which, according to Belmonte, he jumped a mud puddle and went off stride.

It was Charlie Whittingham's day at Hollywood Park, where horses he trains ran 1-2-3 in the $56,250 Lakewood Handicap.

Jockey Bill Shoemaker got Howard B. Keck's Fiddle Isle, high-weighted at 126 pounds, to win the $50,000 Oaklawn Handicap at Golden Gate Fields.

Personality definitely became the leader of the topsy-turvy division last Saturday when he added a victory in the Jersey Derby to his triumph in the Preakness.

And a victory in next Saturday's Belmont Stakes would be a major step toward the 3-year-old championship and even Horse of the Year honors for the Hall to Reason colt owned by Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs and trained by her son, John.

"Today he was at his best, better than any race I've ridden him in this year," jockey Eddie Belmonte said after Personality romped to a 1 1/4-length victory over Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gary's Corn Off The Cob in the $128,400 Jersey Derby at Garden State Park.

Another who was at his best Saturday was Gene Goff's 5-year-old Nodouble who set a track record of 1:34 3/5 for a mile in winning the $114,600 Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park.

In clipping a fifth of a second off the mark set by Count Fleet in 1942 and equaled by Blessbush and Dark Mirage, Nodouble, under top weight of 126 pounds including Braillo Baeza, got up in the final stride for a head victory over Ogden Phipps' Reviewer. William Haggin Perry's Dewan was third.

Former Bantam Boxing Champ Dies at 53

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Former world bantamweight boxing champion Manuel Ortiz died Sunday of cirrhosis at San Diego Naval Hospital. He was 53.

The native of Corona, Calif., who spent most of his later years in the El Centro area east of San Diego, won 92 bouts, 45 by knockout, lost 27 and fought three draws in his 18-year ring career which ended Dec. 10, 1955.

Ortiz captured the 118-pound crown by outpointing Lou Salica in a 12-round contest on Aug. 7, 1942.

He successfully defended his title eight times in 1943, four times in 1944 and, after his discharge from the Army, three more times in 1946.

He finally lost the title to Harold Dade in a 15-round bout on Jan. 6, 1947, regained it March 11 with a 15-round decision and lost it for good May 31, 1950 to Vic Toweel in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Mexico and Russia Kick Off Title Play

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Two of the 16 finalists in the ninth world soccer championship—Mexico and Russia—have kicked off one of the world's great sports events in the monumental Azteca Stadium.

The Latin American-European battle ended in a goalless tie Sunday. More than 700 million people watched the match on television in five continents.

Azteca Stadium was packed to capacity with over 107,000 fans inside and tens of thousands outside.

However, interest in the first round will mushroom Tuesday when three games are played simultaneously in Puebla, Guadalajara and Leon.

Uruguay faces Israel in group two in the new Cuauhtemec stadium, seating 37,000, in Puebla.

England and Romania will attract the most attention because of their mutual power in a game at Guadalajara.

Peru and Bulgaria, who together with Morocco and West Germany complete Group Four, will play at Leon.

England is the big favorite, along with Brazil, in this tourney.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

"A public office is a public trust" is attributed to President Grover Cleveland. The World Almanac notes the phrase was originated by Sen. Charles Sumner in a speech, May 31, 1872, and was later adopted as Cleveland's presidential campaign slogan. In his inaugural address, March 4, 1885, Cleveland exclaimed, "You are every voter, as surely as your chief magistrate, exercises a public trust."

Jim: "In other words, the take-out double is a standard today in spite of the fact that it is a completely artificial bid."

Oswald: "The negative double invented by Alvin Roth in the '50s is standard in tournament play today. It is a very complicated convention as used by Alvin who doubles almost anything negatively. I think we might discuss the simplest form of it for our readers. This simple form is well worth learning."

Jim: "Today's hand shows this bid at its best. North's double of one spade does not suggest a penalty. Instead it says 'I have four hearts and some values. We can afford to play somewhere at the two level.'"

Oswald: "East would raise to two spades without the negative double and the hand would play there. Based on the negative double South is now able to bid three hearts. He knows his partner has four hearts and some cards."

Jim: "North does not raise to four. The classic negative double shows four hearts and 7-11 high-card points. North has just seven and passes."

Oswald: "Two spades would make a fairly easy three hearts does make. South ruffs the third spade and draws trumps. Then he gives away a diamond trick. Diamonds break 3-3 so his only other loser is one of dummy's two clubs."

WORLD CARD GAME

Q—The bidding has been:

Pass 1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠
Pass 2 N.T. Pass 3 ♠
Pass 4 ♠ Pass 4 N.T.
Pass 5 ♠ Pass ?

You, South, hold:

What do you do now?
A—Bid six diamonds only. Even if your partner holds three aces and the king of diamonds no guarantee will go with a grand-slam contract.
